Thank you to Multi Cultural Club for gathering some quotes to celebrate Black History Month

"Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world." - Nelson Mandela

"The Greatest evil in our country today is ignorance. I believe unconditionally in the ability of people to respond when they are told the truth. We need to be taught to study rather than believe, to inquire rather than affirm." - Septima Pointsette Clark

"Faith and Prayer are vitamins of the soul; Man cannot live in health without them." - Mahalia Jackson

"Those who say it can't be done are usually interrupted by others doing it." - James Baldwin - A well-known African American Writer and activist who shares his art and love of culture through essays, novels, plays, and poems. His first novel "Go Tell It On The Mountain" was included in Time Magazine's "100 Best English Language novels released from 1923-2005".

KAMPY'S KORNER

"We all have dreams. In order to make dreams come into reality, it takes an awful lot of determination, dedication, self-discipline and effort."

—Jesse Owens, world record-setting Olympic athlete

Happy Black History Month

"There's just something beautiful about walking on snow that nobody else has walked on. It makes you believe you're special."

— Carol Rifka Brunt, "Tell the Wolves I'm Home"
